The table was decorated with pink and white carnations and around it were seated Misses Emily Jenkins, Lucile Badger, Vera Cannon, Alice Smith, Lizzie Thomas, Bessie Badger, Grace Cannon, Lyle James, Minerva Smith and Louise Badger; Messrs. David Smith, Brigham Perkins, Tracy Cannon, Alma Taylor, George Badger, Preston Cannon, Abe Taylor, Ralph Badger, John Bowers and Clarence Neslen.

You and I Crystal Club.

The You and I Crystal club met with Mr. and Mrs. W. Guiver at their cottage in Darlington; the early part of the evening was spent in playing high five; the prize winners being Mrs. E. M. Davies and Mr. I. Harvey; first; Mrs. G. Guiver and Mr. E. G. Holden, second. The tallies were Bryan and McKinley badges and the counters, tiny dolls. When the points were counted Bryan had a majority of seven. A most elaborate supper was served, the decorations of the table being yellow and white, and dahlias in shades of red were profusely used in the parlor. The guests then enjoyed a game of "Fish-o-logy." Mrs. Ford and Mr. Davies getting the first prize, while Mrs. Strickland and Mr. Holden won the booby. After a few selections by the Crystal club band, the club adjourned to meet in two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Ford.

In Honor of Miss Vinson.

There was a pleasant little gathering of friends Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. J. A. Jennings at 345 Center street, in honor of Miss Pearl Vinson of South Bend, Ind., who has been visiting friends in this city for the past three months. Those present enjoyed themselves with conversation and music. During the evening light refreshments were served. Among the invited guests were Dr. and Mrs. Fred Clawson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beattie, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Ensign, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Owen, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Madison, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Green, Mr. and Mrs. Will Dyer, Mrs. Margaret Peterson, Mrs. C. G. R. Opal Club.

The Opal club met on Tuesday evening at the Ladies' Literary club house. A feature of the evening was the first appearance of the famous Kanab Club, which rendered several numbers in such appetizing style that many members threatened to leave. The affair was a good take-off on Sousa's band, a dozen of the members of the club having masqueraded and practiced the hit comedy for the amusement of the club. Cards and dancing followed and a very pleasant evening was spent by all. The attendance was larger than at any meeting of the present season and the prospect for a successful series of socials for the coming winter is very bright.

Played High Five.

Miss Lucy Williams entertained a few of her friends at her home Friday evening in honor of Miss Emma Ovard. High five was played, prizes being won by Mrs. H. Montier, W. Isabel Underhill, Mr. T. Cook and P. Brunger. At the conclusion of the games dainty refreshments were served and musical selections enjoyed.
